Gossip on the Rialto Regarding Police Think They Worked a Nellie Doyle's Screams Caused Mary Keleher's Attempt to Kill That Treatment Recommended by 'Twas a Horrible Affront to the Heyward McAllister's Nemesis.

Mrs. E. A. McCall's Sister Says They Will Be Given Another Hear- She Declares She Was Maltreated There Is Now No Doubt that She Dora Has Been Leading a Diser- An "Outrage" that Convulsed "The She's Not His Persecutor.

Claims that It's a Case of Mistaken Identity.

to despatches from Newport, has been annoying young Heyward McAllister, him around in a victoria drawn by a piebald circus horse, did not return to New York to-day, as reported. authority for this statement is Mrs. Hathaway, Mrs. McCall's sister, with whom she lives, at 132 East Twenty-e and created a scene before one cound persuaded to leave. then an "Evening World" reporter led at 132 East Twenty-third street iny, he was met at the entrance to a McCall's private hall by an elderly yant, who barred all further prog-

red. Oh, dear, you have got it all wrong. S. McCall is still in Newport. She is just rented a cottage there and has d the rent for the season, and there nothing to call her to New York." he voice could not be persuaded to sw its bodily envelope, but continit to sing out denials of the story conting the name of Mrs. McCall with to f Heyward McAllister. So to the Albemarke Hotel." consect the voice. "You will find Mrs. I all there, if she is in town."

vo years ago came into prominence ving to shoot Actor Lennon in the I two years ago came into prominence trying to shoot Actor Lennon in the Irs. AlcCall-Wall began her stage carryiti Rice's 'Evangeline' company long ago that few remember it. She erwards drifted into the 'legitimate' a played in Edmund Collier's, Dion succault's and Nat Goodwin's consists. While playing with Collier, in racune, five years ago, Lennon sued for divorce, naming Collier as co-pondent.

ondent, return to 133 East Twenty-third t discovered Mrs. Hathaway enced behind a door, through which talked to the reporter. She had evity experienced a change of heart the first interview. the first interview.

Irs. McCall." she said, "will be to-morrow and will make a state-time. She has telegraphed me to effect. It is all a mistake about persecuting Mr. McAllister. The on who followed him about was a lan to whom he owed money. How know that? Why from my corredents in Newport."

McAllister's friends the found to-day, who would talk the count money.

of Mr. McAllister's friends be found to-day, who would talk the young man's latest trouble. McAllister surprised his friends married Aliss Janie Champion mony, of Savannah, Aug. 22, 1837. was said that the marriage had been a secret so long because Heyward dependent upon his father. Ward illister, and that the announcement his marriage would interfere with inheriting a considerable amount in his grandfather, W. H. Gibbons.

te Lion Park. Bayne's band will furnish music.

Badger Game on Wallach.

ing This Afternoon.

Isaac Goldstein, tall, swarthy and ill kempt, Lena, his wife, poorly dressed, The Prisoner Showed Fight, but carrying her babe in her arms, and Abraham Halpern, thirty years old, the Mrs. E. A. McCall, who, according Samson Wallach with having decoyed him into their Ninety-third street flat, where he was beaten into insensibility whenever he drove out, by following and robbed of $500 in cash and other property, were before Justice Welde, in Har lem Police Court, this morning. The story of the bold robbery was ex clusively published in detail in the Sporting Edition of yesterday's "Evening whom she lives, at 122 East Twentythird street.

The details of the manner in which young McAllister was compelled, by a handsome woman who drove the callco horse, to forego the pleasure of a picnic at Sisson's with a party which included
Gen. and Mrs. J. Frederick Pierson, Miss Daisy Pierson, Nelson Lewis and the Beekmans, was telegraphed on here last night.

The young man's Nemesis was positively stated to be Mrs. E. A. McCall, Mrs. McCall's sisted, whither he had fied with the Goldateins, by Detective Bruner, of the East Eight-eight street station.

Goldstein, who captured the Goldstein, who Detective Bruner, araigmed the prisonera. They were represented by Lawyer J. J. Green, who had them enter a plea of not guilty, and then asked for an adjournment until 2 clock this afternoon.

The police believe that Goldstein and his companions worked a clever badger game, as none of the money or other property has been recovered.

Broker Wallach was in court this morning, and denied again to the reporters that he was found in a compromising position with Mrs. Goldstein, which resuited in his being assaulted by Goldsite followed him to the McAllister cottage and created a scene before she could be persuaded to leave.

When are the present was posttively stated to be Mrs. E. A. McCall, and that Air. McAllister has received innumerable notes from the wind the estate light was in court this morning, and denied again to the reporters that he was found in a compromising position with Mrs. Goldstein, which resuited in his being assaulted by Goldsite is as short, dumpling-shaped, little and. He seemed to realize his peculiar position was alleged by the prisoner.

He seemed to realize his peculiar position was a selected as companded to leave.

He seemed to realize he for the callco Halpern, known as "Dave," man. He seemed to realize his peculiar predictanent. He near "Evening World" reporter at 132 East Twenty-third street at the entrance to McCell's private hall by an elderly ant, who barred all further prognets, who have a man said that any message for McCell would be delivered to that but that she could not be seen maily. While this information was the financial world had by the servant a voice the inner regions somewhere detailed.

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Bricklayers' Union No. 11 will elect a new President next Monday, the present incumbent having resigned. The painters' unions of this city are to amaigamate this evening at Maennerchor Hall. 203-207 East Pifty-sixth street. there, if she is in town."

Albemarie Hotel is not receiving H. Girling delegate to the annual Convention just now, as it is undergoing of the International Typographical Union.

The General Advisory Board of the Local Up-holstorers' unloss is making arrangements for a grand agitation meeting. Reports from the dif-ferent branches will be received next Saturday

After a three months' strike the Union printers at Hotyoke have made a temporary settlement with the publishers of the Transcript, pending a decision of the State Board of Arbitration of Mazzachusetts.

Pollowing officers were elected by the Building Trades Section of Central Labor Union yesterday: Joseph Cuddiby, Secretary of the Defense Fund; John Meilroy, Trustee; William F. Hall, Cre-The prospects for harmony between the Central Labor Union and Central Labor Federation are improving. The Harmony Committees of both bodies mat at Clarendon Hail last evening, and it was practically satisfy that it all cases of strikes and boycotts the affiliated organizations will co-operate. The question of independent political action will probably remain an open one until a general vote has been taken.

The two Buffale lodges of the Order of Patit

Jollification of the Purcells.

The John Purcell Association of the Eighth time the plaintiffs were out during the Lehigh ward, named after the former Tammany leader at the eight plaintiff, will have a jollification and Summer-night's festival hext Monday of the country of the Lehigh Valley road to defend the cuit, upon the allegations that the order to defend the cuit upon the allegations that the country of the country o from Bremen on account of broken intermediate eccentric strape. It was necessary to heave to for eight hours to make repairs.

Cigar-Maker's Union No. 16 will make as ex-cursion to Fort Wendel, One Hundred and Nine-ty-fourth street and Amsterdam avenue. Sunday, Herself Will Likely Fail.

Pretty Mary Keleher, eighteen years cruel joke. Dr. F. L. Oswald, of the nospital, said this morning that there

LOVE ME, LOVE MY DOG.

Lindeman Paid $3 for His Loyalty

not resented it."

Justice Feitner adjudged both guilty and imposed a fine of $3 on each. The

WANTED FREE GROCERIES.

Burglar, and Is Caught.

Policeman John O'Brien, of the East caught Abel Shroder, twenty years old, store of H. W. Siebern, at 1626 Madison avenue, shortly after 5 o'clock this morning.

The policeman discovered the transom over the rear cellar door open. He climbed in and crept softly upstairs into the store, where he says he saw Shroder going through the money drawer, while on the counter near him was a loaded

THE CHILDS-DREXEL HOME.

(By Associated Press.)
PUEBLO, Col., Aug. 16.—The Visiting

Committee of the Childs-Drexel Home, as Colorado Springs, is making a thorough investigation of the management of the Home.

The matter will be brought to a focus by Joseph Conway, of Kanaas City, an inmate, who filed notice with Supt. Schulmann that he would bring charges through New York Typographical Union No. 6 against Mrs. Schulmann, the matron; Nina Campbell, a nurse, and A. P. Sutton and A. D. Martin, inmates, alleging conspiracy, with threats and illeging the supplement.

treatment.

Mrs. Schulman says the charges and published reports are part of a plan to cast reproach upon the management.

You read The Evening World!

De you read the Sunday World?

fines were promptly paid.

Mahoney's Arrest.

Weakened at a Revolver.

twenty years, living with her mother at 493 Second avenue, was on the verge of insanity this morning as she was ar-Yorkville Police Court. She said she the hands of two men, one of whom was captured. He proved to be James Mahoney, twenty-one years old, of 308 East honey, twenty-one years old, of $08 East Twenty-second street.

Nellie was very much dased and told a very rambling story of her experience.
From what could be learned, she is a salesgirl in the employ of Hilton, Hughes & Co.

Mary has had a good reputation. Her friends live somewhere in Jersey City. Two years ago she was engaged as a domestic by Mirs. Powers, who has a young daughter, Ellen. Ellen has a young daughter, Ellen by two his price of the owner. It became his pred about that Mary Keleher had selen the watch and refused to return it. Ellen told Patrick of what was being said, and some one else did some talking, and everywhere Mary went she was taunted with the story. Her friends were not in carnest, but it got noised about among the children on the street, which was taunted with the story. Her friends were not in carnest, but it got noised about among the children on the street, which was telen the watch and refused to return it. Ellen told Patrick of what was behing said, and some one else did some talking, and everywhere Mary went she was taunted with the story. Her friends were not in carnest, but it got noised about among the children on the street. Which was total the watch and refused to return it. Ellen told Patrick of what was behing said, and some one else did some talking, and everywhere Mary went she was taunted with the story. Her friends were not in carnest, but it got noised about among the children on the street. When we have the watch in the street, which was not a wa hair was dishevelled.

She sail that two men had assaulted her in the hallway in front of which she was then standing.

At this moments Mahoney came rushing out of the house and ran towards Secon avenue. On catching sight of him she shouted:

"Catch him! Made to the standard of the house and the standard of the shouted." "Catch him! He is one of my assailshouted:

"Catch him! He is one of my assailants."

Horan gave chase, and, drawing his revolver, as the fugitive reached the corner of Second avenue and Twenty-second street, cried:

"Stop, or I'll send a builet through your head!"

Mahoney was taken back to Twenty-first street, where Neilie was still shouting and crying. She had aroused almost everybody on the block, and they flocked out of the houses and surrounded her.

When the policeman respeared with Mahoney in custody the girl positively identified him as one of the men who had assaulted her.

Both were then taken to the station. Mahoney was recognized by the police as a tough and burglar. He has been requently arrested. On her charge of assault he was locked up. She was detained for the night by the matron. All night long she sobbed, but when taken to court she seemed to brighten up and laughed in a hysterical manner.

Mahoney denied knowing anything of the girl. Justice Taintos committed the prisoner to enable the police to have

Mahoney denied kinds committed the girl. Justice Tainton committed prisoner to enable the police to l

KEPT DOGS ON THE ROOF.

Raphael's Neighbors Protested and

He Removed Them. The white-winged Angel of Peace has Homeless Abel Shreder Becomes place, in which No. 150 is located, all are charged with having made night have been removed.

who rents apartments in the house from Mr. Moher, the owner, and during the past few weeks the canines have lived on the tin roof. It was thought that everybody liked the dogs until some "sufferer," ciaiming to speak for several like himself, printed a circular calling on his neighbors to arrouse and hold indignation meetings against the doss.

dogs.

The circulars were distributed broadcast, and one of them fell into the hands of Mr. Raphael. Naturally, he was indignant, but in order to avoid further trouble he took the canines to his store on Greene street to-day.

Young Philipin Taken to Bellevne Richard Philipin, the young man who attracted and Sixth street, last night by declaring he was Charges to Be Made Through Tyvue Hospital this merning, where Dr. Douglas will make an examination as to his mental condi-tion.

The German steamship Havel, from Breman Aug. 7, made this port last night. She was dety-fourth atreet and Amsterdam avanue, ounter, The second annual monlight excursion of the New York District Epworth Leegue will be held faturday. The sail will be up the Hudson to West Point, where time will be allowed to see the dress person of the codets.

Coming Events.

You read The Evening World! Do you read the Sunday World?

IS SHELIZZIEM'CALL? GOLDSTEINS HELD IN COURT. ASSAULTED IN A HALL, MAY LIVE TO FACE GOSSIPERS. HUNGER AND BLOWS. MISS FILKINS'S BIG SNEEZE. TRIED BY VETERANS.

Distinguished Paul Arthur. Weinstein for His Daughter.

derly Life.

old, is in Harlem Hospital to-day dan-gerously ill and indirectly the victim of was a probability of Mary's recovery. "Let my daughter starve. Instead of Driven to desperation by the accusafood, give her stripes until the blood tion that she was a thicf, made by persons in the neighborhood where she was Such were the exclamations uttered employed as a domestic with Mrs. Bridget Powers, of 200 Third avenue, man living at 215 Madison street. They the unfortunate girl bought an ounce of were not merely wild ejeculations, but creosote and swallowed it with suicidal were addressed suppliantly to Officer Gormley, of the Gerry Society, who had came to the house last night she refused come to ask Weinstein what disposition he intended should be made of his daugh-> and keeping a disorderly house at 22 still at large, and only her given name, Yetta, is known to the police. Officer Gormley says that Yetta took Dora to Mrs. Hoffman's house, where in their power to cover Mr. Arthur's the young girl was induced, for the suit in the Superior Court for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mary, on the statutory grounds. Blozberg claims that he married her September, 1893, Alder-n an "Soger" Flynn performing the cereman "Soger" Flynn performing the ceremony.

On leaving the Aldermanic Chamber, Blozberg says, he took his wife's arm and was about to take her to a carriage in waiting, when she surprised him by saying she did not love him and she would never live with him. Then she ran away. Blozberg went home alone.
Later he found her living with another man. man.
A motion for $250 counsel fees and $25 a week alimony will be argued before Judge Freedman Aug. 22 next.

John Dowd, twenty-four years old, of 432 East ville Police Court this morning, charged with plainant, is the woman who a year ago threw her taby out of a necond-story window. She was sent to the lusane asylum, and a short time ago was dis-harged. When the amenut case was called Mrs. Dowd falled to appear and Dowd was held for examination.

revolver.

O'Brien stole up behind him and threw his arms around him. Shroder made an attempt to get his revolver, but the policeman handcuffed him. Shroder had $1 in pennies in his pocket.

In the Harlem Police Court this morning he was held in $1,000 bail for trial. Inspector McLaughlin will see if he can identify Shroder as an old offender. John Walsh twenty-six years old, no home. morning, and was rescued by Martin Francia, of

Every Day

We clear out "Odds and Ends" in some department or other; but the "oddest" thing about it all is the price.

Passing Show" People.

A little sneese did it- a tiny, vivaclous, unrehearsed and femining sneeze. What it did was to cause ill-feeling and unpleasantness at the Casino. It was during the last act of "The Passing ing was so opposed I thought my heart was show" Saturday night. Paul Arthur, a sfected. Hearing Professor Munyon so highly gentleman who starred cariler in the season, and is consequently not to be suit was entirely cured."

Manyon s Remedies routain positive curer for the most obstinate and intricate diseases. Sold stuge with one or two others. Mr. Arthur plays a very important part. stood Miss Grace Filkins, waiting for tions or adules. Open all day, Sundays, 3 to her cue, and listening intently to Mr. Arthur, All of a sudden, in an unlucky sysme and Union Square. moment. Miss Filkins felt an inclination Dors, who became fourteen years old berehlef and couldn't find it. Size on May is last, had been arrested yester- sneezed loudly-so loudly, indeed, that day by Officer Gormley as a witness the audience heard it. The audience against two women charged with her tittered; audiences are so inconsiderate abduction for disorderly purposes, One Instantly Mr. Arthur, like Laura of these women, Mrs. Amelia Hoffman, Jean's heroes, drew himself up to his was held yesterday in the Essex Market full height, glared at the sudience as Court in $2,000 on charges of abduction though to say "You idiots" and left the stage. He went to his dressing-room The other woman is removed his stage clothes and left the theatre. Those left on the stage had most uncomfortable half hour. They had to "fake" speeches, and to do all the young girl was induced, for the past two weeks, to ply a most nefarlous trade. Dora, in the mean time, had been pretending to her father that she was at work in a cloak establishment at 25 Ludlow street, but subsequent inquiry showed that there was not a shop in that house at all.

At 8 o'clock each evening Dora used to arrive home saying that she was ited out by work and begging her father to wake her up early the following morning, as she was expected at her work bench at 7 o'clock.

Lindeman Paid $3 for His Loyalty to the Cauine Race.

Frederick Dormayer, twenty-one years old, of 100 Second street, and Frederick Lindeman, aged twenty-eight, of the same address, were arraigned before Justice Feitner in the Essex Market Police Court to-day to answer a charge of disorderly conduct, Policeman Haus, of the Fifth street station, found the two men fighting together last night.

"Your Honor," said Lindeman, "the fight started about a dog. A friend visited me last night and brought his pet dog with him. Bornayer's mother, who is the housekeeper, came to my rooms and informed me that the rules of the house do not permit a dog to enter it. I told her the dog was as welcome in my rooms as my friend. After my friend went home I was assaulted by Dormayer for no reason whatever."

William Brozberg, who is in the botter of the insulted my mother, sir," said Dormayer, "and I would have been an ungrateful son had I stood by and not resented it."

Justice Feitner adjudged both guilty to the Causeling, of 280 Groadway, begun

Calcedo, the "wire king." has been secured by the Boston Howard Athenaeum Star Specialty Company for next season, and that organization has also captured Eunice Vance, the Eddy family, Kalkosa, an equilibriat; the Creacendo brothers—or freree, as they prefer to be called—Smith and Campbell, and Pitrot, the minic.

The theatrical small fry who are al-ways posing as so fearfully hard-worked, and talking of the dreadful nervous strain to which continued dramatic ef-fort subjects them, might take a hint or two from Barah Bernhardt. Sarah is not as young as she used to be, but fort subjects them, might take a hint or two from Barah Bernhardt. Sarah is not as young as she used to be, but she is positively indefatigable. After her arduous London season and her matines

Donnelly & Girard's farce, "The Rain-makers," will step into the Bijou Thea-tre this season. Miss Isabelle Urquhart and the Harcourt sisters have been se-cured. Miss Urquhart will play the part of the widow. The "Rainmaker" people

Old Soldiers Investigate Munyon. PHILANTHROPIC WORK ACCOM-PLISHED BY HUMANE METHODS.

Mr. S. It. Gellan 73 years old, of 262 Brooms street, says: "I contracted rhoumatism during the rebellion and have suffered for the past thirty years. When I went to Professor Munyon could just creep along by using two canes. Now I walk with perfect case and feel that $ cannot be thankful enough for the remarkable curs effected by Munyon's Rheumatism Curs. Captain Hinds, 227 East 28th street, says: Por years I suffered from dyspepsia because n physician was able to relieve me. The lighter distressed me. I lest fish, and my breath and he had plenty more to do before call on Professor Munyou for a thorough medical the evening was over. At the wings examination. Absolutely no charge for examina-

> 7 STORES TOCETHER. Park Row & Chatham Sq.

Park Row & Chatham Sq.

SEWING MACHINES $1 Weekly for 35 Weeks.

EVERYTHING FOR HOUSEKEEPING FURNITURE, CARPETS, Etc.

$I Weekly on $65 Worth. ONLY ONE VISIT NECESSARY. Collections Made IF REQUESTED.

Kennedy Cortland Percale Shirts, 89c. French Percale Semi-Negligues, soft basoms, two starched collars

(wo starched collars and one pair Coda, worth $1.10.00 to the pair Coda, worth $1.10.00 to the pair Coda, worth $1.10.00 to the pair to th

The Autumn tints are coming to the leaves, therefore Derbyn, styles up to date (8 grades), $1.90, $2.35, $2.80. Men's Shoes. $4.00 Tan Shoes at $1.98

You ask how! Don't bother about that, just take them. The best style Blueher and Razor toes. say that she was "a supreme favorite of the comic opera stage." That is news.

Rose Coghlan will open her season with "Diplomacy" and "A Woman of No 'mportance." She will later out present a new play. No, it is not one of dear Charles's reports. Dear Charles shelved. It is a dramatization of "TI Woman in White." Miss Coghlan his secured the managerial services George Wotherspoon. Rose Coghlan will open her scaso with "Diplomacy" and "A Woman of Rudelph Aronson was congratulated the other day—not upon his prospective return to the theatrical interests of the city, but upon his lucky absence therefrom during a season that is generally conceded to have been the very worst

Mr. Abbey offered Willie Edouin a comedy part in Lillian Russell's company in London. Mr. Edouin, however, did not accept it. He is presenting "Our Flat" at the Strand Theatre, and decided not to make any change. Miss Russell's company is now practically completed. Chubby little Annie Myers will be a splendid foil to the goldenhaired prima donna. Miss Myers, however, will not be merely a foil, for she can sing, but not in a way to conflict with Lillian. The news of the decision in the injunction case was much discussed about town last night.

ardious London season and her matines tour through England and Scotland, she went back to France. But she couldn't even enjoy the repose of the journey. She travelled by way of Folkestone and Boulogne, and when she reached the latter town she stopped off, gave a performance of "Fhedre" and continued her route to Paris. Sarah is one of the wonders of the century.

Aubrey Boucicault takes Charles Dickson's place in "Madeleine: or The Magic Kliss," in Boston, Mr. Dickson being obliged to prepare for his starring tour. Harry Eskin, the manager of this company, was in the city yesterday. He says that the success of "Madeleine" leads to the belief that interest in genuine comic opers, without horseplay, is not dead.

Donnelly & Glypad's farce "The Bala."

Carter's Little Liver Pills, Sc. 1 Vin Mariani, TSc. 1 Sprudel Caristad Salts, 49c.

A. F. JAMMES. 909 BROADWAY.

Manhattan Beach Sousa's Band. Sonsa's Grand Festival,

THURSDAY, PRIDAY, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, AUG. 16, 17, 18, 19. The Unrivalled Band.

MISS LAURA BELLINI, SOPTARO,
MISS ROSA LINDE, Contralto. Grand Opera Chorus, Dynamite Battery. Magnificent Programmes.

Each performance concluding with the new tone The Assembly of the Artisans.

HAGENBECK'S TRAINED MENAGER E AND MONKEY PARADISE. PECIAL THURSDAY FIREWORKS

JAPANESE AND CHINESE PLEETS PAIN'S LALLA ROOKH.

THE COOLEST PLACE ON THE BAT! Buffale Bill's Wild Wast Buffalo Bill's Wild West AND CONCRESS OF ROOM RIDERS OF THE WORLD Ambross Park, South 8' kbgs. AND CONGRESS OF ROUGH RIDERS OF THE WORLD

MOST DIRECT HOUTE FROM NEW YORK locamp gates is by 30th at, terry, foot of Water ball at, Eattery, FARE 5 CENTS. I wice baily, Hain or Shine, 3 and 8.15 P. 4 DOORS OF SN AT 1 AND 0.30 P. M.
All roads via Fattery, Brooklyn Beldes, Manlton, Wall, Fulton, side at and other Farriamake connections direct to gates.
Admission 50 cents. Central Grand Stan 1.75 cents and pl. 30,05) omats.

KOSTER & BIAL'S. ADM. 500.
MUSIC HALL & ROOF GARDEN.
LIVING PICTURES.
SECOND SERIES LIVING.
ELDORADO GILMORATANA.

BIALTO, THE FIRE DANCER,
SEVERUS ECRAPPER, C. A. SAMPSON,
PROP. MAYOTS CIRCUS. LIVING PICTOR
STH AVE THEATHER, H.C. Miner, Prop. A Mer.
MONTH THE MIKADO, Evening, S. M.
MONTH THE MIKADO, Wather, L. M.
and continued Produced OUFF OPERA CO. MADISON SQUARE ROOF GARDEN The largest and Handsomest Garden in the Wester EVERY EVENING S TO 12.
Admission, 50c. Reserved Seats, 15c. Box. 55.

NIBLO'S. Walter Santord, Least 26. PEOPLE'S THEATRE. Jane Coombs IN Bleak House. Next Week-THE DERBY MASCOT.

CASINO. THE PASSING SHOW, S. 15.

and ROOF GARDES, Sept.

Admission to both, 50c,

10-11 Performance Aug. 17.

Matines Saturday next at 2.

LENNARD BULLET-PROOF SHIELD TERRACE GARDEN HIXE SHEPPARD. Admission, See, Reserved seats Stor and The THEISS'S AND ALEAMBRA COURT.
134 and 135 Keet All the Brown Story of the Print Month of the Print Story alternoon and story plays every alternoon and story plays ever COLUMBUS Theatre. Evers all; Wed.

Mat. Opening of season 3at. Eve., Aug.
Walter Sanford's 112, Danie

AMERICAN THEATRE
Carmendia, John W. Rangose
ROOF GARDEN the Great Powell, Offlie, Joh
TO-NIGHT. LADY ORCHESTRA, CLEMENSO BROS., EDITS CRASKE, STEIDL BROS., TILLIE JARDYEL PROCTOR'S AND Living Pictures, 4 & 10 P.

Brooklyn Amusements. HUBER & GEBHARDT'S CASINO. Siarris & Waiters, May Rolls, Pelix Heney, lima Bergenson, Rita Durand, Madge Kills, Ad-sission tree. Reserved seats, 10, 15 and Ma.

Concert at East River Parks There will be music at East River Park this evening by Boswald's Military Band. Following is the programme:

"The Star-Spangled Banner,"

March, "Delegation"

Overture, "Military"

Waitz, "Beauting Dangbe"

Selection from "Maritana" Waltz
 Selection from 'Maritans' Cornet sole...
Nr. Tom Clark. Nr. Tom Clark.

6. March, "Tannhauser"

7. Music from "The Last of the Hogans"

8. Caprice. "Columbian"

9. Potpourf, "Greman"

10. Medley, "The Old Story"

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Highest of all in Leavening Power .- Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Al Baking Powder

THE SKELETON HAND.

We are resident to the case where to be the product of the case where to be the case where the case where to be the case where the case whe